Brahma Kumaris

Brahma Kumaris is a unique, spiritual, value-based educational institution with activities focused on development of human potential. It recognizes the intrinsic spirituality of every human being, thus facilitating development of spiritual awareness through a process of lifelong learning.

As an international institution spread in more than 137 countries, Brahma Kumaris offers people of all backgrounds an opportunity to learn meditation and deepen their understanding of universal principles. As a worldwide family, it provides a caring, cooperative and supportive environment that encourages individuals to bring out the best in them. Its services are offered free of charge.

Venue: Gyan Sarovar, Academy for a Better World, spread across 28 acres of land, offers residential programs on practical implementation of human, moral and spiritual values and principles.

Key Features: Universal Harmony Hall, Spiritual Art Gallery, International Center for Higher Learning, Meditation Rooms, three man-made lakes and solar energy plant. In 1996, the Academy was presented to Habitat II, the second UN Conference on Human Settlements held in Istanbul, Turkey. It was recognized as part of the Best Practice Initiative for Human Settlements.

Transport & Travel Wing

The Transport and Travel Wing (TTW) of RajYoga Education & Research Foundation (a sister organisation of Brahma Kumaris) engages voluntarily with people associated with the transport, travel and tourism sectors. The aim is to strengthen the foundation of human values in these sectors. The approach is to enable the people in these sectors explore their innate values, realize their potential and experience holistic development. The vision is to see the transport and travel sector emerge as a powerful agent of spreading happiness and harmony.

TTW undertakes various educational programmes and events like training programmes, seminars, retreats, conferences as well as awareness building events.

Objectives

At the heart of the Brahma Kumaris teachings are the fundamentals of RajYoga Meditation. This retreat will provide a practical understanding of the relationship between spirit and matter, as well as an understanding of the interplay between souls, God and the material world. The spiritual insights and the silent pauses will facilitate your inward journey in an efficient and effective way. It will help you to:

- ▶ Become skilled at the practice of making time and space for meditation
- ▶ Develop necessary inner strength to harness your thoughts, emotions and responses
- ▶ Use your meditation skills in everyday life
