

UN World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims - 17 November 2013

Brahma Kumaris worldwide observe 'World Meditation Hour' on the third Sunday of every month. On 17th November 2013, this International Meditation Hour was dedicated to Road Traffic Victims.

City & Country	Time	Venue	Contact Details
Mumbai, India	5.30 pm	Prabhu Upvan, Ekta Bhoomi Gardens, Dattapada road, Borivali (E).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> BK Kavita Tel: +91 9167995251 bkroadsafety01@gmail.com
Willesden Green, London, UK	6.30 pm - 7.45 pm	Global Co-operation House. 65-69 Pound Lane, London NW10 2HH	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tel: 020 8727 3350
Miami, Florida, USA	4.00 pm	Downtown Hollywood's ArtsPark	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> bkroz@juno.com Brahma Kumaris Hollywood Meditation Group
Johannesburg, South Africa	3.00 pm – 5.00 pm	124 Rose Avenue, Lenasia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> lenasia@za.brahmakumaris.org Tel: 011 854 4904 T
Almaty, Kazakhstan	5.30 pm	Baizakov street 298, Almaty

In addition, events were also held at: Mauritius Georgetown, Guyana Suriname Perth, Australia Thailand Coventry, UK India: Pune, Vapi, Ahmedabad, Palakkad

At Mt. Abu, Radio Madhuban, 90.4 FM held special talks on WDR and Road Safety during the following programmes

- Nayi Kiran (Rays of Hope): 7 to 9am (Morning Show)
- Aapka Swasthya Aap Ke Haath (Your Health in your Hands): 9 to 9.30 am (Live phone in with doctor)
- Salam E Zindagi (Salute Life): 1 to 2pm (Senior citizen spl)
- Spotlight Values: 4 to 5pm (Spotlight on values in every walk of life)
- An Interview with Sis Divya (National Coordinator of Transport & Travel Wing)